PARIS

Travel & Entertainment Guide 2026

ICONIC LANDMARKS

The Eiffel Tower

No visit is complete without the Iron Lady. For 2026, enhanced gardens and updated security glass walls provide a safer, greener view of Champ de Mars.

The Louvre Museum

The world's largest art museum. Beyond the Mona Lisa, explore the renovated Islamic Art wing and the Napoleon III Apartments for stunning opulence.

Montmartre & Sacré-Cœur

The bohemian heart of Paris. Walk the cobblestone streets where Picasso once lived and enjoy the best sunset view of the entire city from the basilica steps.

Palace of Versailles

A short train ride from the center. Witness the Hall of Mirrors and the incredible musical fountain shows held in the royal gardens during summer.

CULTURAL EXPERIENCES

Seine River Cruise

Experience the "City of Light" as it was meant to be seen—from the water. Evening dinner cruises are highly recommended for the illuminated bridges.

Le Marais

The historic Jewish quarter and current center of Parisian fashion and nightlife. Perfect for boutique shopping and art galleries.

Live Music & Concert Venues

Paris is a major stop for all European tours. Here are the top spots to catch a show in 2026:

Accor Arena (Bercy)

The primary destination for global pop and rock stars. It offers a massive capacity with state-of-the-art acoustics.

Philharmonie de Paris

An architectural marvel in the Parc de la Villette, hosting world-class orchestras and experimental contemporary music.

L'Olympia Bruno Coquatrix

The most legendary music hall in Paris. Famous for its red interior and for hosting everyone from Edith Piaf to The Beatles.

Stade de France

Located in Saint-Denis, this is where the world's biggest stadium tours (Beyoncé, Coldplay, etc.) take place during the summer.

Annual Music Festivals

- Fête de la Musique (June 21)

Published March 2026. Please check official venue websites for specific tour dates and ticket information.
